The Crisis of Belief:

1. An encounter with God requires faith.
2. Encounters with God are God-sized.
3. What you do in response to God's revelation (or invitation) reveals what you believe about God.
4. True faith requires action.

Encounters with God are God-sized
because God is
interested in the
world coming to
know Him, not us.

What is it going to
take to see God's
miraculous power at
work in my life? My family? My church?

What if I told you that God didn't need to show up. He is already
here doing His work.
WE are the ones who
need to show up.

The background features a white surface with a repeating pattern of small, light gray crosses. Scattered around the central text are several pieces of golden-brown, crusty bread and two whole, silver-colored fish with dark scales and fins. The bread pieces are elongated and some are broken, while the fish are positioned as if they are part of a meal.

The Feast of Faith

Mark 6:30-44

1. Jesus revealed his power and glory by meeting the needs of his disciples and the crowd.

The background of the image shows a fish, likely a sea bream, lying on a white surface with a repeating pattern of small blue crosses. A wooden spoon is positioned horizontally above the fish, partially overlapping the text. The text is centered and reads:

The message of the feeding miracle is
simple:
God will provide.

A wooden spoon and a fish are positioned behind the text. The spoon is at the top, and the fish is below it. The background is a light-colored surface with a repeating pattern of small blue crosses.

When God takes care
of our needs, he does
so in abundance,
giving us more than we
could ask or think.

The background of the image shows a whole fish, possibly a tilapia, and a piece of bread, likely a roll or bun, resting on a white surface with a repeating pattern of small blue crosses. The text is overlaid on this scene.

Do I believe that God
will provide for me,
my family, and my
church in
abundance?

2. Jesus calls me
to believe and
act on what I
cannot see.

A background image featuring a whole fish and a loaf of bread on a patterned surface. The fish is positioned horizontally across the lower half of the frame, and the loaf of bread is positioned horizontally across the upper half. The surface they rest on has a repeating pattern of small blue crosses. The text is overlaid in the center of the image.

Jesus will not meet
the need with
something beyond
them but by
something from
among them.

The disciples complain
about what they lack;
Jesus focuses on what
they possess.

5 Loaves + 2 fish + Jesus =
abundance for 5000 men.

The background of the image shows a wooden staff or staff-like object lying horizontally across the top. Below it, a fish is visible, resting on a surface with a repeating pattern of small blue crosses. The text is overlaid on this background.

The only way the disciples could fail
was by failing to
believe and failing to
offer what they had.

When I trust and obey God, I am filled with God's presence, I experience his abundance, his greatness is
revealed in my smallness,
and my mundane life is
transformed to abundant life.
