

Grace

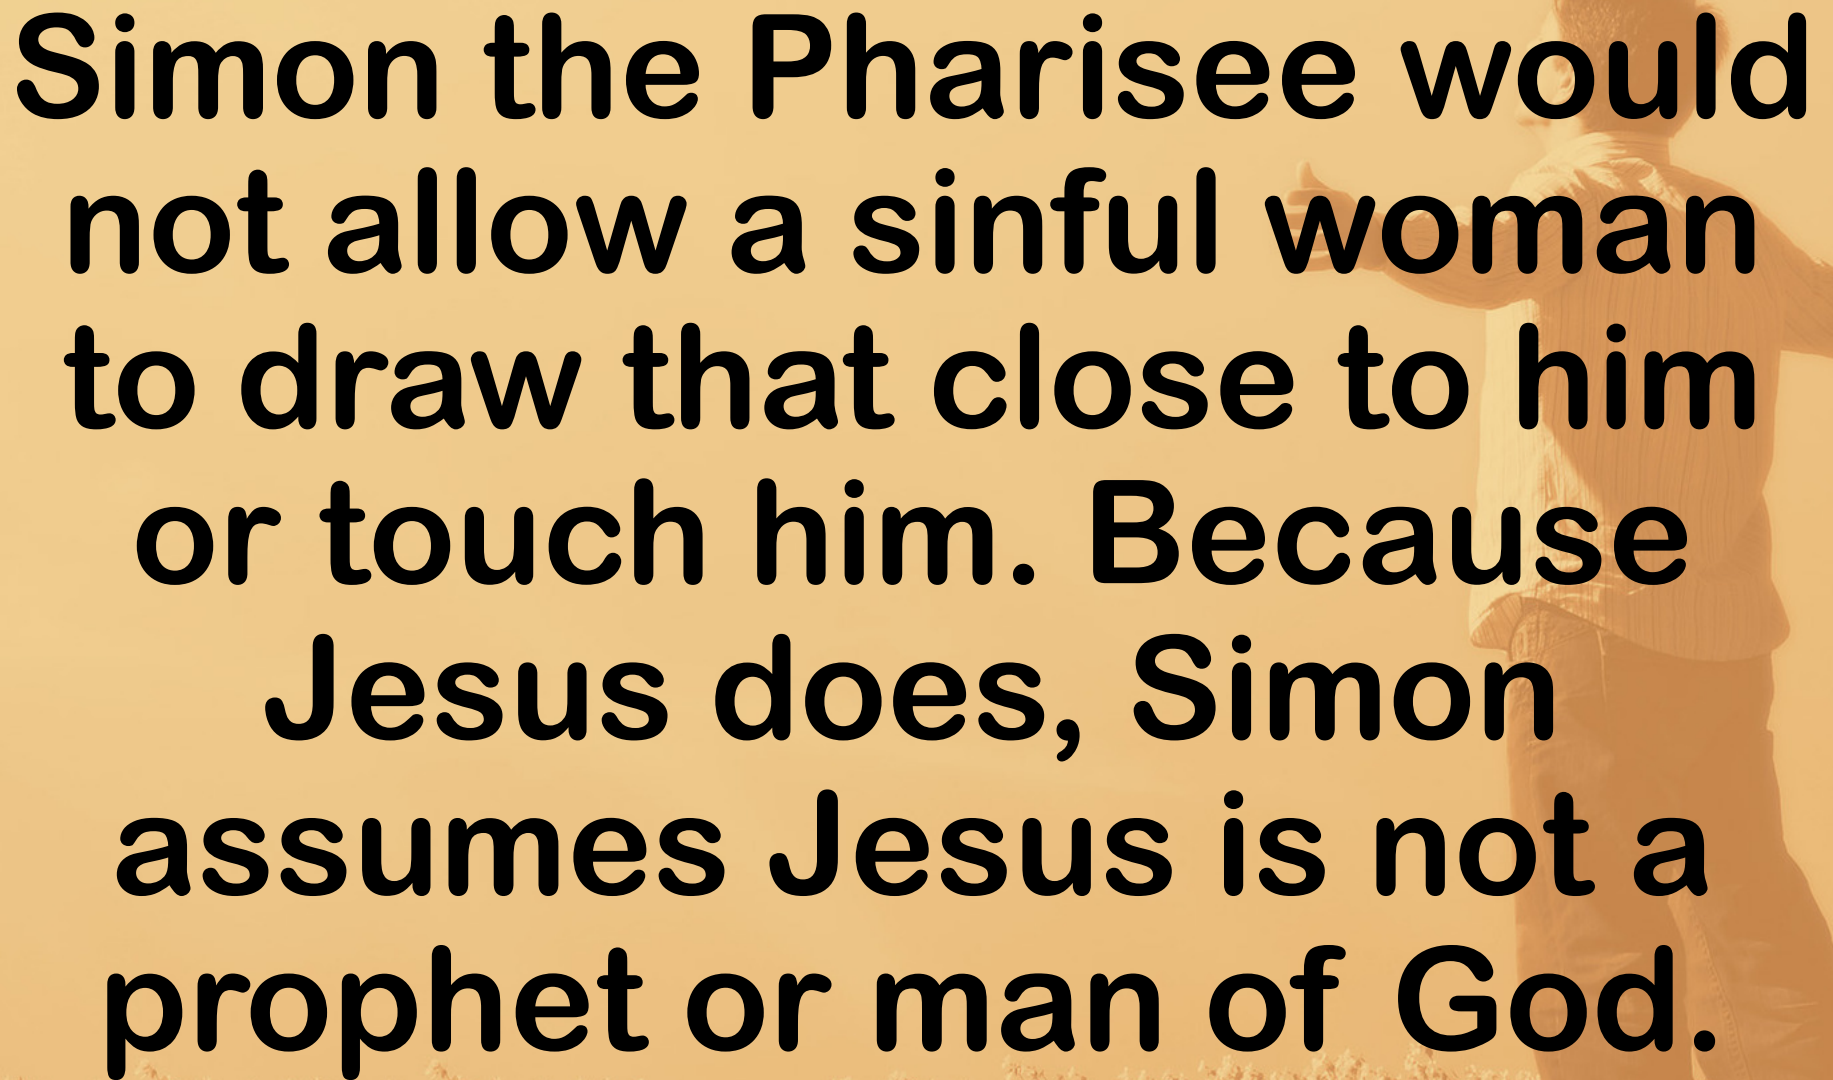

Luke 7:36-50

A man in a light-colored shirt and dark pants stands in a field of tall grass or flowers, looking up and to the right. The scene is bathed in a warm, golden light, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The background is a soft, hazy sky.

Grace: love and/or favor of God that I do not deserve and
cannot earn.

1. Jesus reveals God's grace by
accepting sinners.

A man in a white shirt and dark pants stands in a field of tall grass, looking out towards the horizon. The background is a warm, golden-orange glow, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The text is overlaid on the image in a large, bold, black font.

Simon the Pharisee would not allow a sinful woman to draw that close to him or touch him. Because Jesus does, Simon assumes Jesus is not a prophet or man of God.

Jesus addresses
Simon with a parable
that clearly indicates
he knows what kind of woman is anointing his feet and what is in the heart of the Pharisee.

A man in a white shirt and dark pants stands in a field of tall grass, gesturing with his right hand. The background is a warm, golden-orange glow, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The text is overlaid on the left side of the image.

A man in a light-colored shirt and dark pants stands in a field of tall grass, with his arms outstretched and head tilted upwards, looking towards the sky. The background is a bright, hazy orange, suggesting a sunrise or sunset. The overall mood is one of hope and contemplation.

Christ Jesus came into the world to save
sinners—of whom I am
the worst.

A person is shown from the back, standing in a field of tall, light-colored flowers. Their arms are outstretched to the sides. The entire image is covered with a semi-transparent orange filter. Overlaid on this image is a large block of text in a bold, black, sans-serif font.

Although I am a sinner, God does not shun my presence. He draws close. He invites and encourages contact
and fellowship.

2. Jesus reveals
God's grace by
forgiving
sinners.

All people are
sinners in need of forgiveness. No
one can pardon his or her own sin.

God graciously forgives all sin in Jesus Christ.

...for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that came by Christ Jesus.

Romans 3:23-24

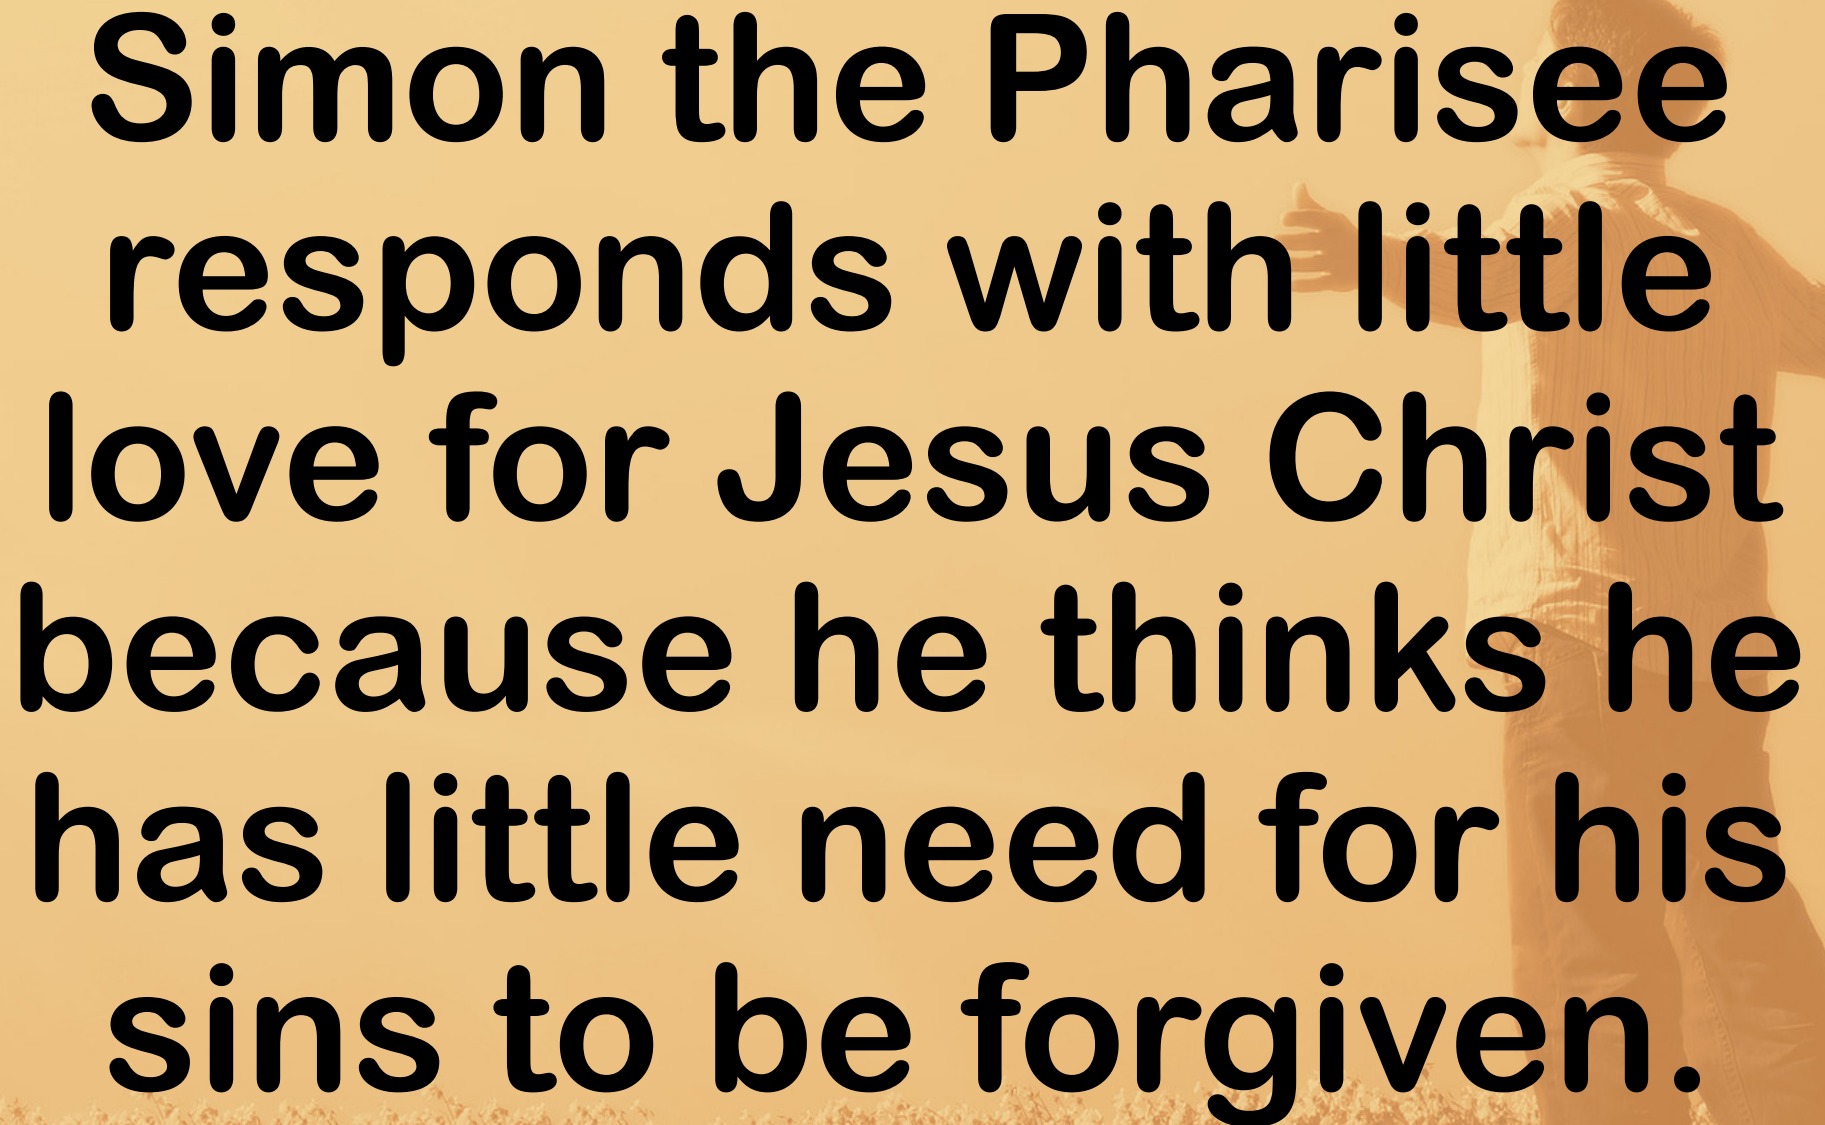

A man in a light-colored shirt and dark pants stands in a field of tall grass, with his arms outstretched and head tilted upwards, looking towards the sky. The background is a bright, hazy orange, suggesting a sunrise or sunset. The overall mood is one of hope and faith.

Do I believe that God, in Christ, has
graciously forgiven
all my sin?

3. I will respond to God's grace in Christ according
to my awareness
of my sin, or lack thereof.

A person is seen from behind, standing in a field of tall grass or flowers. The scene is bathed in a warm, golden light, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The person's arms are slightly out to the sides. The background is a soft, hazy orange and yellow.

Simon the Pharisee responds with little
love for Jesus Christ
because he thinks he has little need for his sins to be forgiven.

The sinful woman
responds with
humility, worship,
and love.

My changed life
expressed through
humble, loving acts of worship reveals how I have received God's grace offered to me in Jesus Christ.

A man in a light-colored shirt and dark pants stands in a field of tall grass, with his arms outstretched towards the sky. The background is a bright, hazy orange, suggesting a sunrise or sunset. The overall mood is one of hope and spiritual connection.

A person is seen from behind, standing in a field of tall grass. They are looking out towards the horizon. The background is a warm, golden light, suggesting a sunrise or sunset. The overall mood is contemplative and peaceful.

How have I shaped
my life as a loving response to God's
grace given to me
through Jesus Christ, my Lord?
