The Responsibility
of Children

Ephesians 6:1-4

1. Rebellion occurs in a covenant relationship between God and His people where the people refuse to carry out their responsibilities.

The Responsibility
of Children

Ephesians 6:1-4

Paul bases his appeal to children
on the covenant
relationship God established with Israel.

Rebellion is when we know what we ought to do but willingly choose not to do it.

1. Rebellion is a great sin because only believers are in a relationship with God through Jesus Christ.

2. Rebellion is a great sin because God is always faithful in keeping His word to us. He always keeps His commitments.

God responds to my rebellion by inviting me to return to a right relationship with Him. I am forgiven in Jesus Christ, therefore repentance is the best response to my own rebellion.

Am I responding to God's faithfulness
to me with rebellion?

2. God has given responsibilities to parents.

My son, do not despise the LORD'S discipline and do not resent his rebuke, because the LORD disciplines those he loves, as a father the son he delights in.

Children are responsible to obey their parents in the Lord.

“If you obey my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have obeyed my Father’s commands and remain in his love.”

John 15:10

Love is bringing what is best in the long run. I cannot experience God's best for me if I do not honor and obey my parents. It is in my best interests to take my place in the family and help my parents succeed in their awesome responsibilities.
