

A Picture of True
Stewardship

Luke 19:11-27

Stewardship: The steward was a household servant who managed the household affairs for the head of the family. Managing the family involved delegation, discipline, encouragement, and, most important, accountability to the head of the household.

1. God's kingdom
does not arrive
all at once, but
the day is coming
when it will be made complete.

19:11-12, 15a

People thought the kingdom would come all at once. But God's kingdom has two defining moments: when it begins and when it is completed.

19:11

After his resurrection,
Jesus returned
to his Father.

19:12

Jesus will return
at the appointed
time. 19:15a

Has God's kingdom
arrived in my life?
Am I living according
to God's authority?
Am I looking forward
to the return of Christ at the end of
all things?

2. Jesus'
servants serve faithfully and
produce the fruit
of the Spirit.

19:13, 16, 18

Jesus gives the Spirit and the gifts of grace through the Spirit to his followers so they can do his work until he returns.

19:13

“I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing.”

John 15:5

“It is for your good
that I am going away.
Unless I go away, the Counselor will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to
you.”

John 16:7

There are different kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit. There are different kinds of service, but the same Lord. There are different kinds of working, but the same God works all of them in all men.

Now to each one the manifestation of the Spirit is given for the common good.

1 Corinthians 12:4-7

While all believers
have the Spirit, not
all believers will
produce the same
results. 19:16, 18

What is my life
producing?

3. When Jesus returns,
he will hold all people
accountable for their faithfulness to him.
Faithfulness will be
rewarded.
Unfaithfulness has consequences.

19:15b, 17, 19, 26-27

Jesus will hold his servants
accountable for
their stewardship
of their gifts and God's purposes.

19:15b

Faithful stewards
will be rewarded.

19:17, 19

Unfaithful
stewards will be disciplined.

19:20-26

Those who reject
Jesus will suffer
eternal consequences.

19:27

How am I responding to Jesus, the King?

I invite you to allow God's kingdom to come
into your life.
Willingly give to God the authority
to rule over you.

I invite you to take
your own measure
and ask what your life is producing? Is your life
accomplishing God's purposes or
your own?

I invite you to make
a right response to Jesus Christ the King today.
Accept him as your Savior, make him
your Lord.
